What is Christmas about?

On Wednesday 19th December, we went to St Paul's Church for our Christmas service. Some people believe Christmas is based on the story of the kind soul Saint Nicholas, who gave presents to the poor. For others, it is about giving and receiving gifts, while for some it is a chance to show their love for their family and friends and to enjoy themselves. We were reminded that Christmas is actually about the birth of Jesus.

Well done to everybody who took part, the musicians, readers and the choir were fantastic.

As always, I would like to thank Miss Blayds for organising event. Thank-you to the parents who were able to come along and join us.
