

Shape Challenge Cards.

This activity requires you to work out the answer to the problem. Remember the strategies we have discussed in class on how to solve problems, you need to read through the problem first, then read it again. Is it a two-step problem? If so, what do you need to do first? What type of calculation is it? Is it addition, subtraction, multiplication or division?

Remember to always work out the steps first.