

Summarise

Write a short summary of a chapter you have read during your independent reading time.

Remember a summary of what you have read is not a retell, you are to select the main points/events of what has happened in that particular chapter.