

World War 2

Learning Objective:

To be able to identify the countries of the allies and the axis on a map.

What do we mean
by the terms 'allies'
and 'axis'?

The allies and the axis were the two sides who fought against each other during World War 2. The allies were led by Great Britain and were later named the United Nations by President Roosevelt. The allies were united in their fight against the axis powers. The main countries of the axis powers were Germany, Italy and Japan. Other countries joined and left the axis alliance during the war but it was these three countries that were at the heart of the axis. The axis powers were led by Germany and Adolf Hitler, the head of the Nazi party.

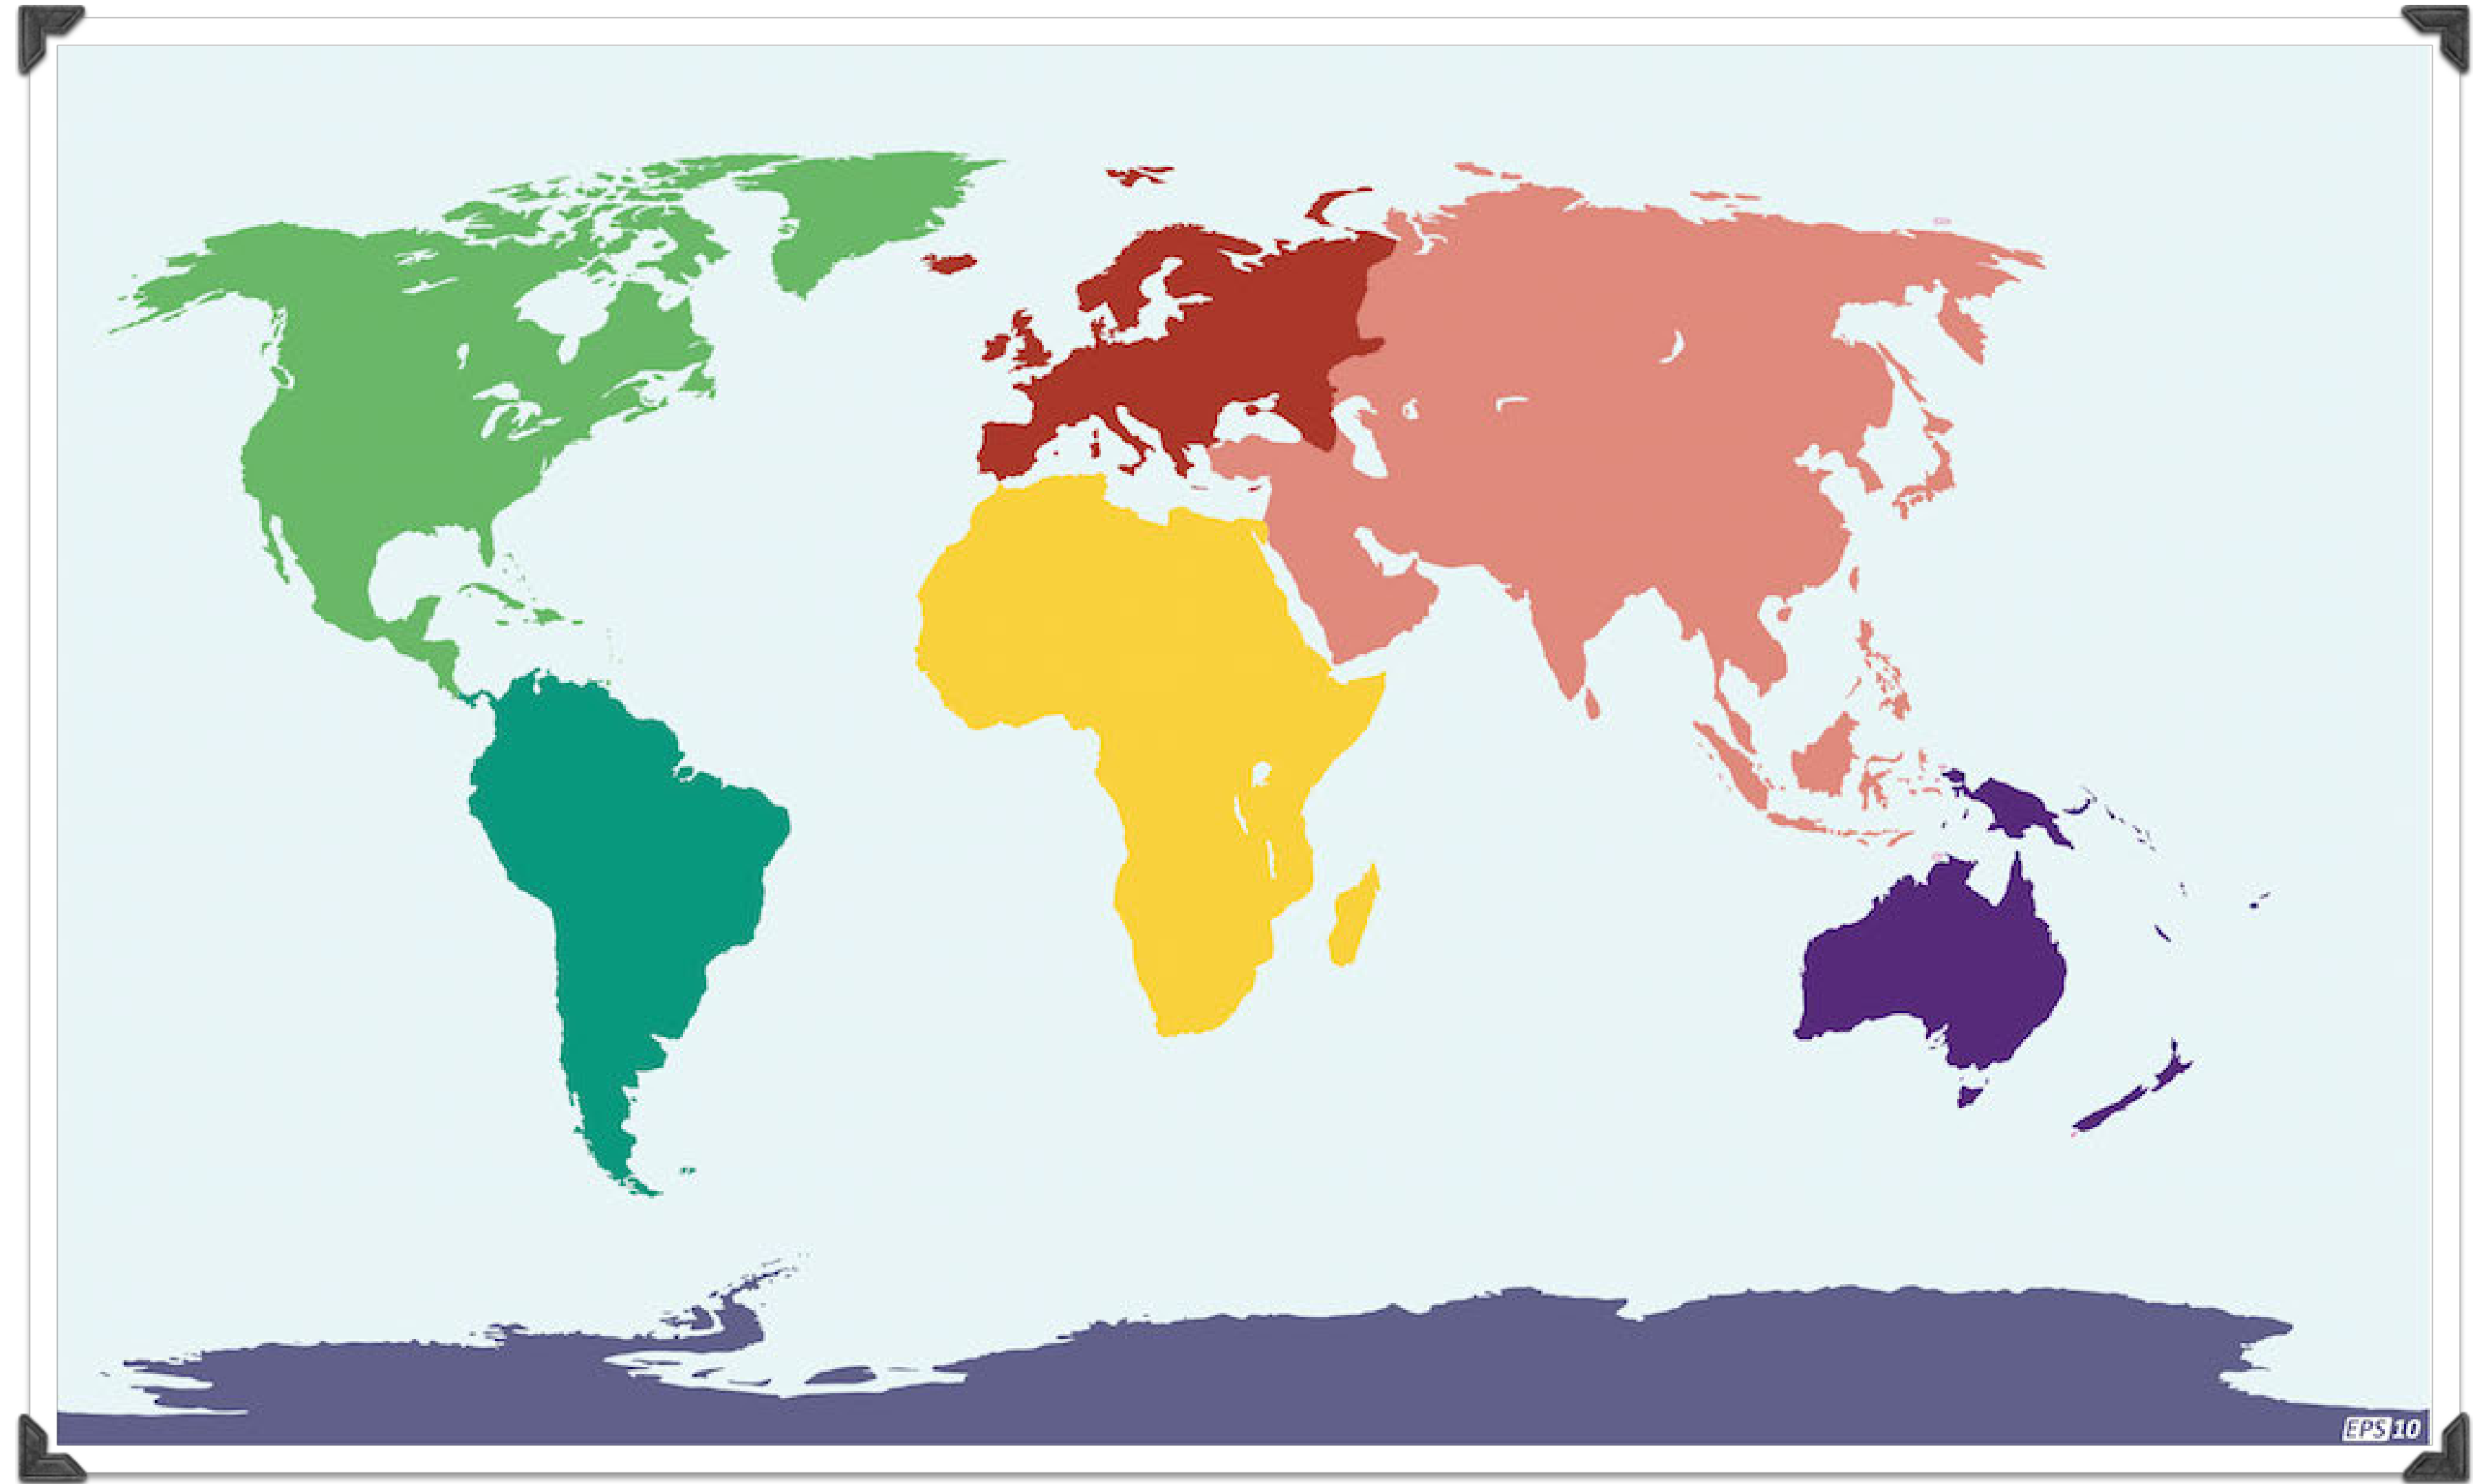

This picture shows the signing of the Tripartite Pact between Germany, Italy and Japan in Berlin, 1940, to formalise the axis alliance.

Let's find out where the allies and axis
countries are on a world map.

Can you name
each of the continents?

Were you right?

The Allies

Can you guess which continent each of these countries are in?

Country	Continent
Great Britain
United States
France
Greece
Australia
Canada
Belgium
Brazil

Country	Continent
India
Poland
South Africa
USSR
Yugoslavia
China
Mexico
New Zealand

The Allies

Were you right?

Country	Continent
Great Britain	Europe
United States	North America
France	Europe
Greece	Europe
Australia	Australasia
Canada	North America
Belgium	Europe
Brazil	South America

Country	Continent
India	Asia
Poland	Europe
South Africa	Africa
USSR	Europe/Asia
Yugoslavia	Europe
China	Asia
Mexico	South America
New Zealand	Australasia

The Axis

Can you guess
the continents
the axis
countries are in?

Country	Continent
Germany
Japan
Italy
Hungary
Romania
Slovakia
Bulgaria
Thailand

The Axis

Were you right?

Country	Continent
Germany	Europe
Japan	Asia
Italy	Europe
Hungary	Europe
Romania	Europe
Slovakia	Europe
Bulgaria	Europe
Thailand	Asia

If you aren't sure where a country is on a world map, what can you do to help you find it?

