

Pobble Picture Writing Challenges.

Choose one of the picture to write about every day. What has just happened? What is going to happen next? Where are they? What are they saying?

Remember our challenges - see if you can use 'and' and 'because' in your sentences.

Check that your sentences make sense by reading them out loud.

Make sure you have used capital letters and full stops in the right places.

Remember how many sentences we are trying to write - 4 at least - and do not forget to write using your beautiful handwriting.

If you want a bigger challenge, try to include these in your writing!

Try to use different sentence starters, after a while, on a bright sunny day, suddenly, as the sky went dark, just at that moment.

Choose some high level words from the adjectives mat and try to use 2a sentences (2 adjectives) remember to use the comma between them!

Remember no more than two uses of the word AND! Choose a different conjunction, also, after that, then, or use one of your own.

We know you will do your best - Enjoy.
