

Week Beginning 27.04.2020 SPaG Year 5 and 6.

Select the activities that you think are best suited to your own learning, bronze (working towards), silver (working at) and gold (exceeding/greater depth).

Monday

Tenses – Present Perfect. REMEMBER our little rhyme, 'Present perfect, HAS or HAVVVVVVVVVVE'. Work through the presentation for today then choose and answer questions from one of the worksheets in your yellow books.

Practise spellings:

intelligence	innocence	emergence	translucence	consequence
incidence	coincidence	confidence	residence	evidence
reference	preference	conference	adherence	interference

Tuesday

Tenses – Present Perfect. REMEMBER our little rhyme, 'Present perfect, HAS or HAVVVVVVVVVVE'. Work through the presentation for today then choose and answer questions from one of the worksheets in your yellow books.

Practice spellings:

intelligence	innocence	emergence	translucence	consequence
incidence	coincidence	confidence	residence	evidence
reference	preference	conference	adherence	interference

Wednesday

Tenses – Past Perfect. Work through the presentation for today then choose and answer questions from one of the worksheets in your yellow books.

Practice spellings:

adorable	believable	dividable	movable	arguable
changeable	enforceable	chargeable	noticeable	manageable
variable	reliable	deniable	identifiable	justifiable

Thursday

Tenses – Past Perfect. Work through the presentation for today then choose and answer questions from one of the worksheets in your yellow books.

Practice spellings:

adorable	believable	dividable	movable	arguable
changeable	enforceable	chargeable	noticeable	manageable
variable	reliable	deniable	identifiable	justifiable

Friday

Bank holiday.