I am going shopping today. My friend Lucy will be going too. She is a lovely girl. She will get the bus there but I will go by train. We are going to get lunch in town. I am going to bring an umbrella because it is going to rain. We will be meeting my sister and her friends this afternoon because they are going shopping too. My mum can not collect us so we will get the bus home. We will have to be home at seven o'clock this evening and we will not be late.

Challenge: Now have a go at writing your own passage. It could be like the one above about what you are going to do today or want to do today. It could be about anything you like, try to include a contraction word in each sentence.
