

Pick any book to read, it can be an e-book or a book you have at home.

Read it and the answer these questions:

Did you enjoy that book? Why? Why not?

Who was your favourite character? Why?

Which part did you like the best? Why?

Was there any part that you didn't like? Why?

Would you choose this book/story again?

Look in a book and find any of these words. Which words did you spot the most?

people
their called looked asked could

Reading Menu

Select some of these tasks to complete whilst at home. You can also make up a new task of your own to share with the class when we return to school.

On Purple Mash go to 'English Apps' then 'Talking stories' and select a story then listen to it being read.

Now pretend to be your class teacher, can you now read a book of your own using the same amount of expression to keep your class interested?

Look at the things around the room. Can you spot any words that contain any of these sounds? Can you hear the other sounds in the word too? Try writing some of them down.

ai, ou, ir, ee, ea

Pretend you are 'Harry' with his bucket of dinosaurs.

Where would you go with your bucket?

What places would you show your dinosaurs?

Click on the link below and download the brilliant Dinosaur e-book free from Twinkle.

<https://www.twinkl.co.uk/resource/tp-l-52294-dinosaurs-ebook>

Read the book, you will find out lots of amazing facts? Write down your favourite fact so we can share them with each other when we get back into school. ENJOY!

Change WHERE you read!

Whilst the weather is so nice, go outside into your garden and find a comfortable spot, or sit on the grass, and try reading there for a change. Did you like it?