

Now that you have learned the meanings of those words choose a few words to write some silly or sensible sentences with!

Challenge yourself to spell the words without looking.

How many did you get correct?

Read your sentences out loud to a family member.

Did any of your silly sentences make them laugh?

