'The Dinosaur that Pooped the Past!'

This is a story about a dinosaur that has a magic swing. He uses the swing to swing into the past and see important historical events.

Make the swing go back to London in 1666 and write about the event he would be visiting.

Look at the pictures of the dinosaur cards.

Research these dinosaurs and find out interesting facts about them.

Write a fact sheet about these dinosaurs.

English Tasks

'Harry and his bucket of Dinosaurs'

Look at the pictures from the story.

Put the 3 pictures in order.

Draw what you think happens next to Harry and then write the story using the pictures to help you.

Tell me Mary Annings life story!

Click on the YouTube link below and watch the cartoon about the life of Mary Anning (A famous fossil hunter).

In your own words, write about her life. You could use these hints to help you. What was her childhood like? What happened to her when she was a baby? Why is she famous? Were people always fair with her?

Solve a MURDER!

Which were the most dangerous dinosaurs?

Watch the video 'walking with dinosaurs'

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=r1yv7Pi78Og> Think about these questions as you watch.

Who poses a threat to the diplodocus?

Which is the most dangerous dinosaur so far?

*Imagine that you have found a pile of bones on the beach like!! Which Dinosaur do you think they might have belonged to and what dinosaur do you think was the murderer???

'The Dinosaur that Pooped the Past!'

The final picture shows Danny and the dinosaur swinging through the historical times of the Romans, Egyptians and Greeks.

Make a list of what the dinosaur sees in these times. Then draw and write about what happens next when the swing snaps!

Ankylosaurus

Euoplocephalus

Velociraptor

Triceratops

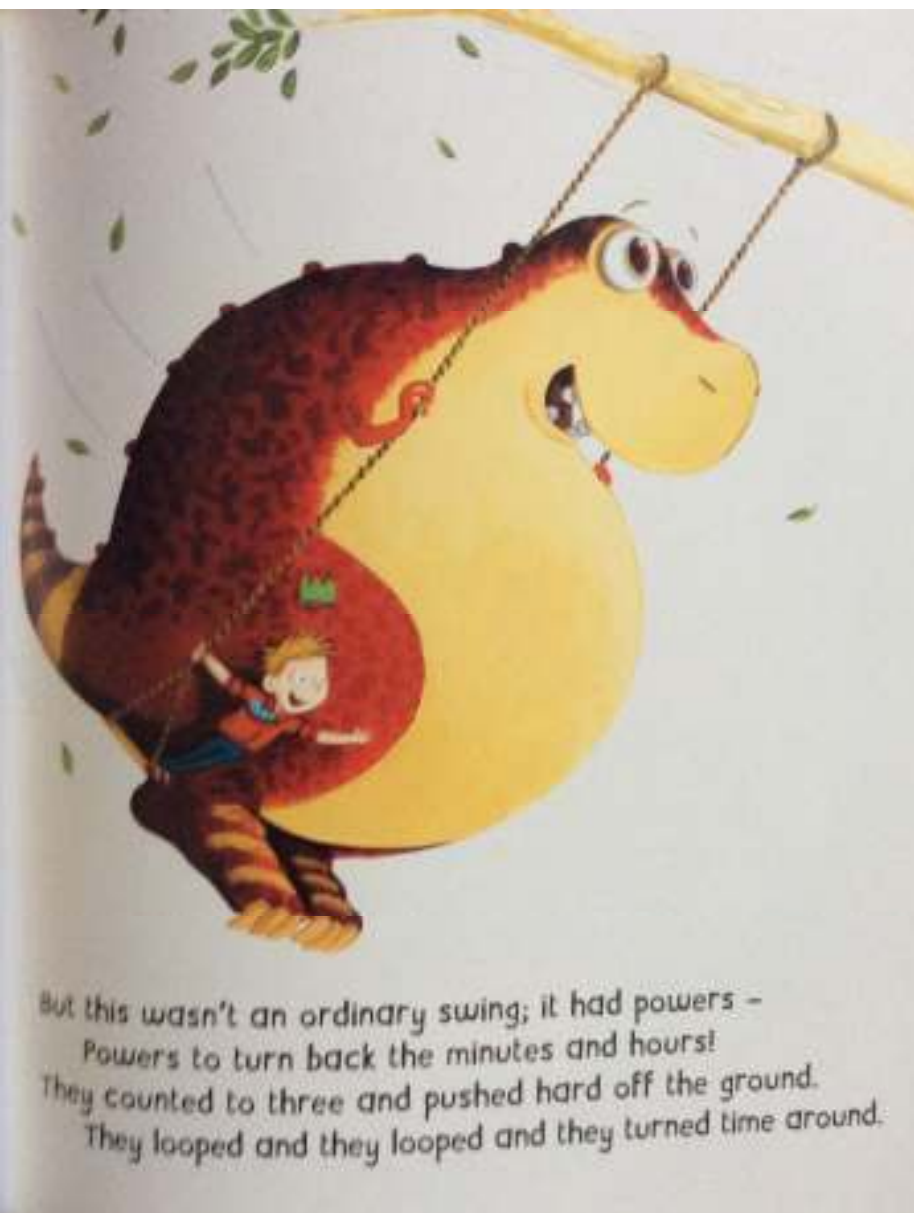

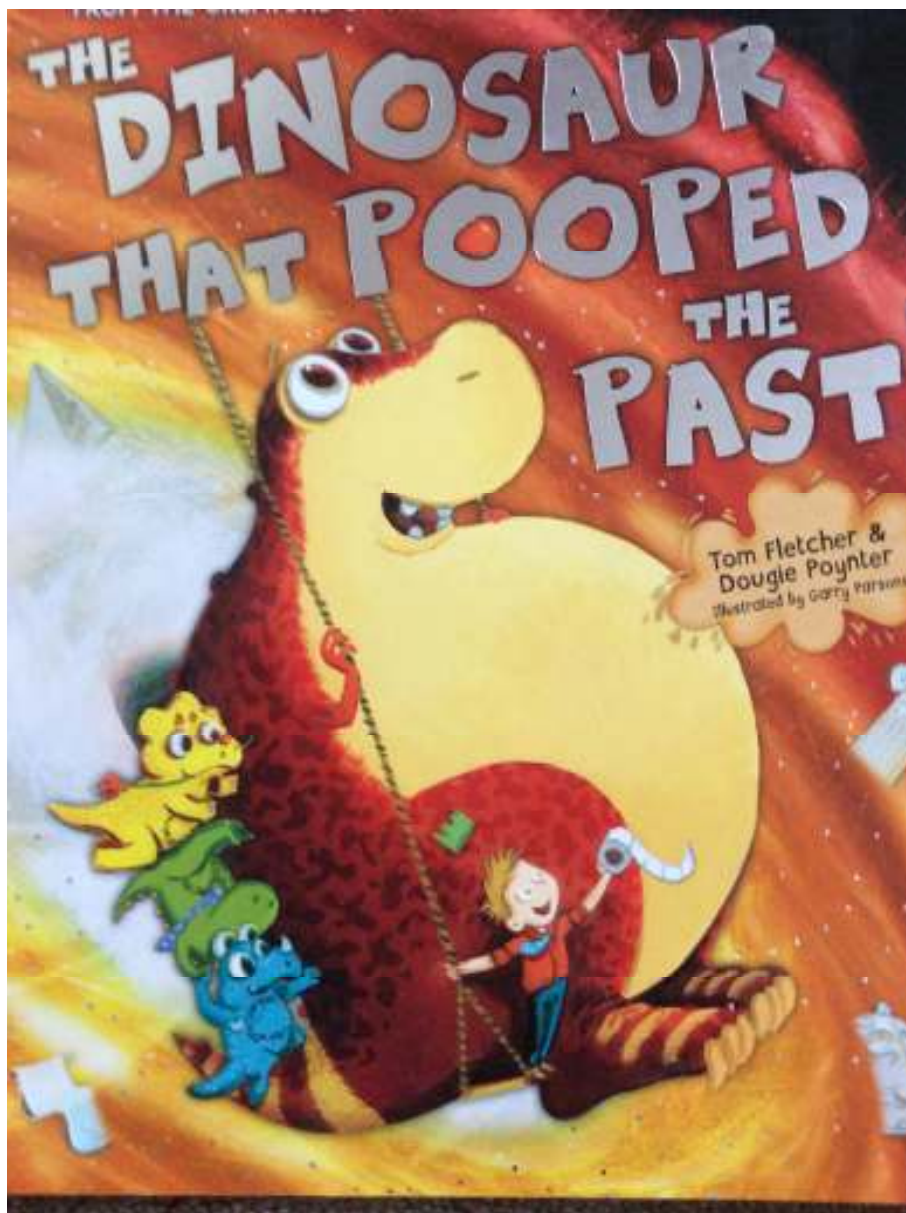

After that, the dinosaurs went everywhere in Harry's bucket.

They went to the garden centre.

When Harry went to bed, the dinosaurs went to bed.

Their heads went all dizzy, time started to bend,
So Danny held on to his dinosaur friend!
Flashes and fizzes and sparkly squeaks,
They swung past the Romans, Egyptians and Greeks.

Then, with a crack,

the swing snapped
in half ...
