

On your marks, get set, go!!

How many adjectives can you write, in 3 minutes, that describe a dinosaur??

Challenge your parents or siblings in a race against the clock!

YOU'RE HAVING A LAUGH!

What do you call a dinosaur with one eye?

D'YA-THINK-HE-SAURUS

Write your own Dinosaur Joke (Hope it's better than mine?) OR USE GOOGLE and search for a funny one that we can use to make a DINO_JOKE book!

Think about all the different dinosaurs you have found out about and all the different dinosaur characters from the books.

Design the dinosaur you would want to be and write a description about yourself.

Holiday task Menu

Try to complete some of these tasks whilst at home. You can also make up a new task of your own to share with the class when we return to school.

Did you watch walking with Dinosaurs?

If not, click this link and watch it.

<https://www.bbcearth.com/walking-with-dinosaurs/>

Afterwards, pretend you are the narrator, listen to his voice and try to copy him! Draw a dinosaur of your own then put on a show for your parents or brothers and sisters about your favorite dinosaur!

Think about all the different stories we have covered during our topic on dinosaurs.

Write a letter to your teacher to tell them which book was your favourite and why?

Look at the pictures of the dinosaur books we have not read.

(I will read them when we get back to school)

Choose one of them and write your own story.

YOU BE THE TEACHER!

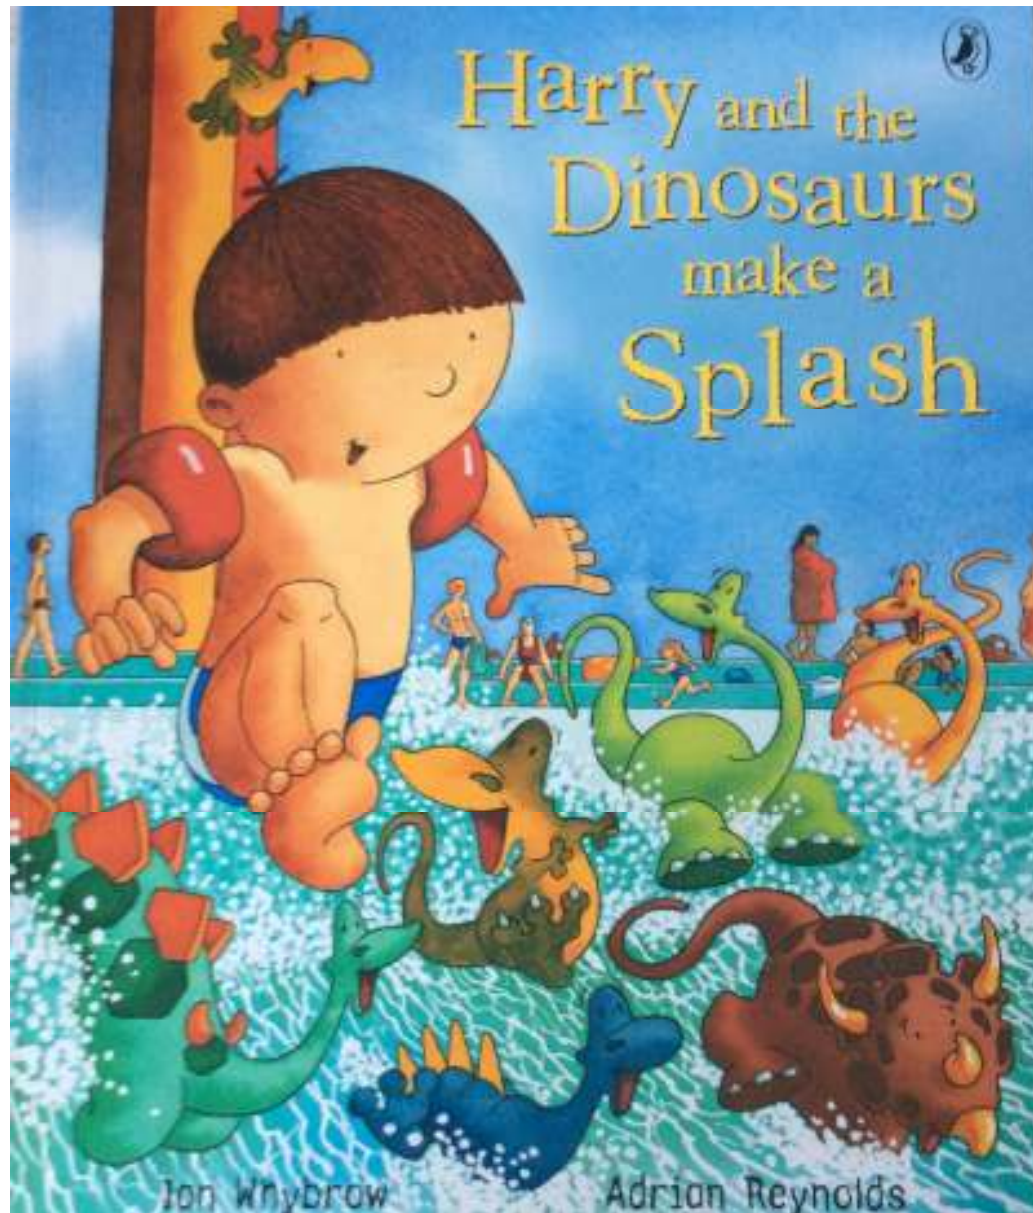

This time you are going to be the teacher! What have you learnt yourself during this topic that you think you could teach to your friends?

Make some notes and practise saying them in a loud clear voice. Make sure you use your voice as a tool to make it interesting, loud then quiet, high pitched then low pitched, different voices etc... good luck!

Finish the acrostic poem.

Try and do another poem using a dinosaur's name.

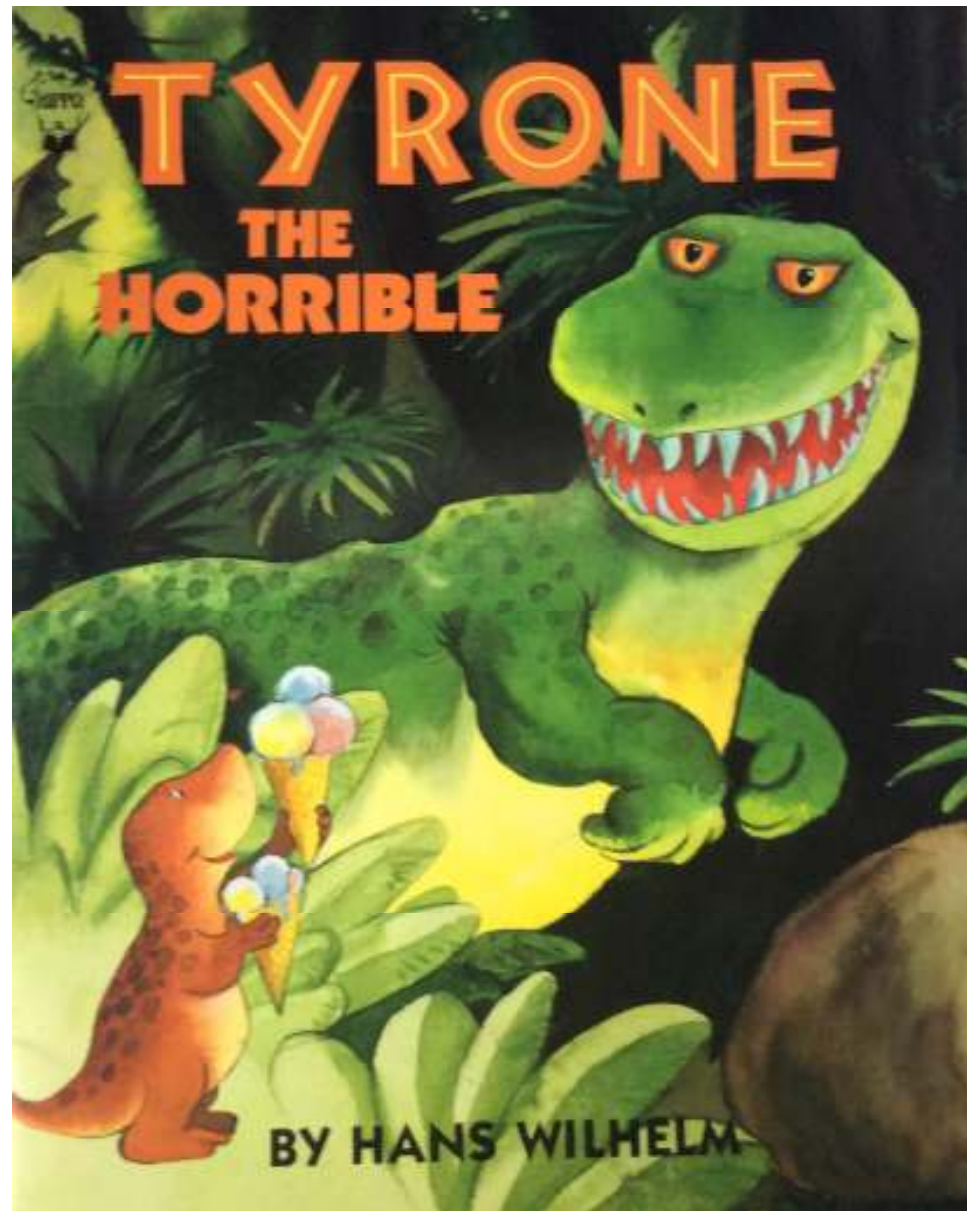

Dinosaurs
Inside
Nana's
Orange
S
A
U
R

Harry and the Dinosaurs
make a Splash

Jon Whybrow

Adrian Reynolds

TYRONE

THE HORRIBLE

BY HANS WILHELM

The Ravenous
Beast

Niamh
Sharkey