

Communication and language area(s) of development:

Attention & listening

Musical Statues - Dance when the music is on and freeze when it stops. It is as simple as that. It is a great activity for your child's attention and listening skills.

What you need -

- A Music Player
- An Open Area

