Reading Menu: Paws Claws and Whiskers

Select some of these tasks to complete whilst at home. You can also make up a new task of your own to share with the class when we return to school.

On Purple Mash go to 'English Apps' then 'Talking stories' and select an animal story then listen to it being read.

Could you visualise the animal in the book? Did it have PAWS, CLAWS, WHISKERS or all 3?

Read the start of the story, 'Rumble in the Jungle'

Make a list of the different sounds and word endings you can see.

Write down the different ways you can write the sounds

ow oi.....

and then write a list of words using all of them.

Look at the picture of the different animals below.

Write down the list of animals you can see and then underline the phonic sounds you see in them.

Eg. monkey, deer

How many more can you find to add to my list.

WORK IN THE ZOO!

Read Undercover Zoo on Purple Mash by clicking the link below.

Put yourself in the role of Billy as he cleans out the animal enclosure YUCK! (you can even insert your photograph into his uniform!) Show his thoughts and feelings in the speech bubble.

Think about the books you have read that have had animals in them?

Three little Pigs, Goldilocks and the three bears, The Gruffalo, The boy who cried wolf, The Ugly duckling? Willy the Wimp and many, many more.

Talk to your parents or brothers and sisters about which is your favorite?

Click on the link below and listen to some more animal stories, just sit and relax and enjoy the stories!

There's a rumble in the jungle,
There's a whisper in the trees,
The animals are waking up
And rustling the leaves.

The hippo's at the waterhole,
The leopard's in his lair,
The chimpanzees are chattering
And swinging everywhere.

Some animals are frightening,
And some are sweet and kind,
So let's go to the jungle now
And see who we can find . . .

Why not get yourself a pet...

or two or three or more?
