

We love writing

I have been really impressed with the work of the children that have returned to school. Our Year 6 children have been researching different countries as part of their geography topic and completed some persuasive writing giving good reasons why the country should be visited.

Below are haiku poems written by children in the Key Worker pod. The children worked really hard on these and I hope you enjoy reading them.

Tiger

Tigers are fierce cats.

They dash as fast as lightning.

Orange predator.

By Michael

Komodo Dragon

Covered in dry skin.

I'm a cold-blooded reptile.

I am poisonous!

By Zayn

The Snow Leopard

I'm a predator.

My favourite meal is blue sheep!

I have spotty fur.

By Maha

The Turtle

I do have flippers.

Swimming is my specialty.

I have a hard shell.

By Ibrahim

Shark Whale

Giant sea mammal.

I swim with a big tail fin.

A whale that eats whales!

By Roseanna

Arctic Fox

I'm an Arctic fox.

Summer brown but winter white,

With short, fluffy ears.

By Rachel

Whale Sharks

My deadly sharp teeth

Not a mammal but a fish

I have pointy fins!

By Inaaya

Yeti Crab

Sharp, silky blonde claws

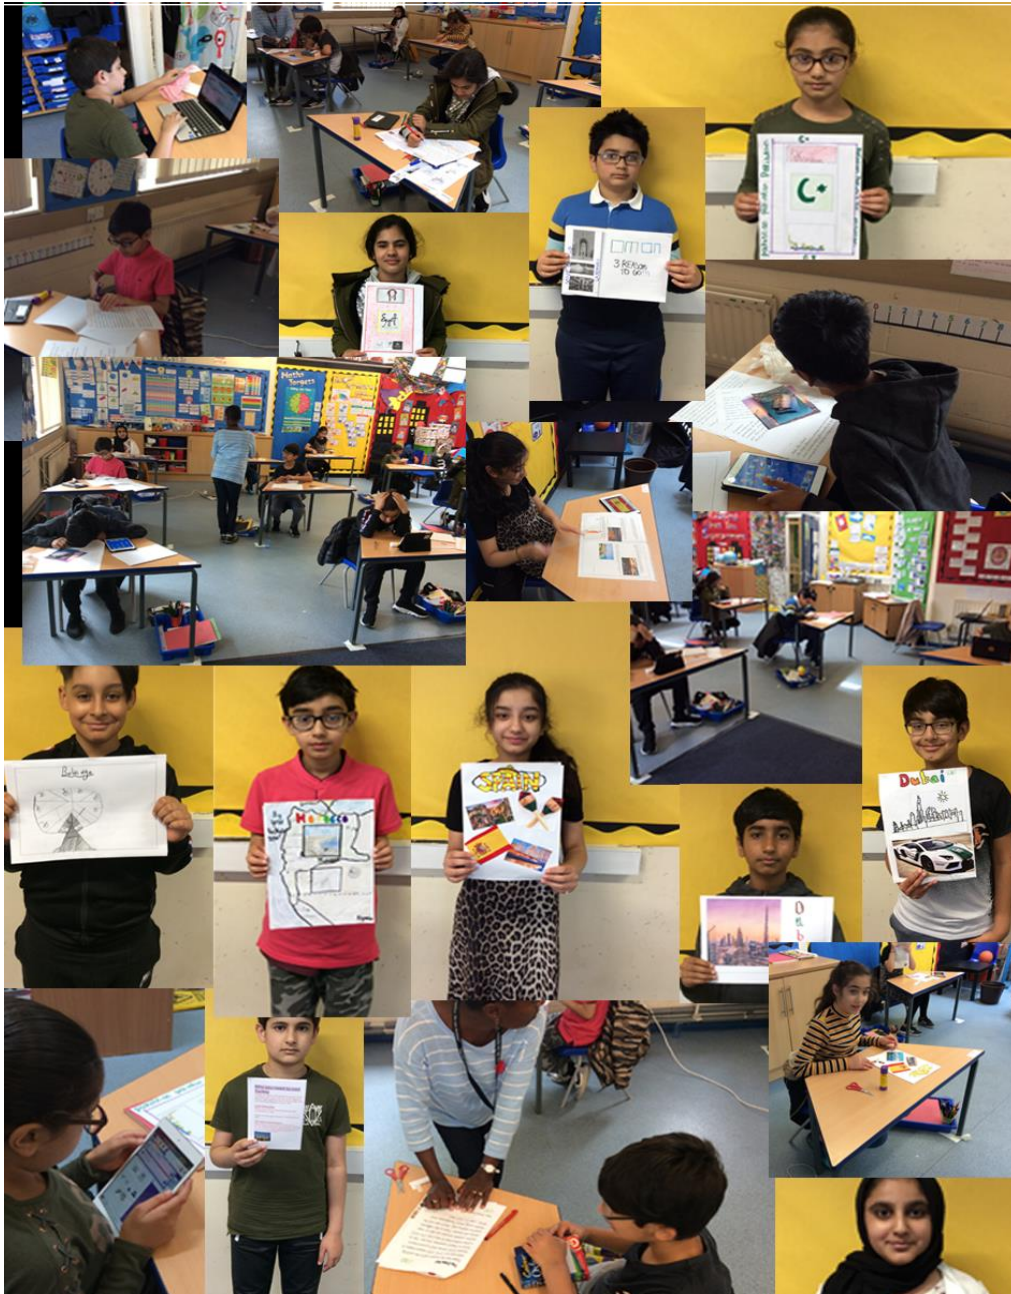

I live in the deep blue sea

And I'm disgusting!

By Ismaeel

Which country would you like to visit

Dubai

By Azaan

Are you bored at home? Looking for a holiday? Dubai is known for its over the top luxury lifestyle and modern architecture in the middle of the desert. The city is located in Asia originally a small town in the middle of the desert. The beaches have soft, golden sand if you like lying down on the beach. The most famous hotel (the Burj Khalifa) has fantastic room service and delicious food. It is also the most tallest hotel in the world!

Wealth in Dubai

Oil was discovered in Dubai just over 50 years ago, but only accounts for one percent of its earnings. So what make the city of Dubai so rich? Dubai began shipping oil in 1969 and before gaining independence in 1971, when it became one of the UAE's seven emirates. In 1958, the ruler of Dubai started investing infrastructure and completed its first airport from loans amounting 10s to billions of dollars. The move away from oil led to a boost of tourism and the little oil Dubai eventually in 1966 went towards building
