

All about me Maths

Create a poster to describe yourself using numbers. You can set this out however you like. Try to be creative and think of unusual numbers to describe yourself e.g. number of broken bones, average number of hours sleep.

Here are some examples below:

Challenge

Can you think of different calculations to equal your numbers? Try to use all four operations or multi-step calculations.

Get a friend/member of your family to work out your numbers.