

Year 3 and 4 Home Learning
RE (Hindu Worship) Week 14

Hindu Worship at Home and in the Mandir

Learning Objective:

To evaluate what you have learned about Hindu worship at home and in the mandir.

The elephant-headed Ganesha is a Hindu god worshipped by virtually all Hindus. He is the god of wisdom and intellect. There are 32 different forms of Ganesha. Some of them have many heads!

What have we learned about the Hindu belief in a supreme God?

What have we learned about Hindu gods and goddesses?

What have we learned about Hindu shrines at home?

What have we learned about puja?

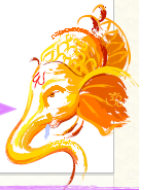

How is Hindu worship similar to other religions?

What questions could we ask about Hinduism?
What would you like to find out about Hinduism?

Does anyone know the answers to these questions?

Hindu Worship at Home and in the Mandir

End of Unit Quiz!!!

What does the 'aum' symbol represent?

A sight

A sound

A smell

A feeling

Well done!

A sound

What is the one supreme God called in Hinduism?

Brahma

Vishnu

Brahman

Shiva

Well done!

Brahman

What is the name of the god who has an elephant head?

Lakshmi

Ganesha

Krishna

Hanuman

Well done!

Ganesha

Which of these would you NOT usually find in a shrine in a Hindu home?

Fresh flowers

A bell

Pictures of deities

Children's toys

Well done!

Children's toys

What do Hindus normally take off before entering the mandir?

Their shoes

Their hats

Their jewellery

Their make-up

Well done!

Their shoes

What is the Hindu word for a sacred image of a god or a goddess?

prasad

murti

arti

puja

Well done!

murti

What is the Hindu word for the ritual burning of a ghee butter lamp?

prasad

murti

arti

puja

Well done!

arti

Which of these items do Hindus normally use to tell the gods they are ready to worship?

A bell

A horn

A triangle

A drum

Well done!

A bell

How many did you get right?

Please do one of the two activities..

Incense holder

Diva lamp

Water container

Spoon

Draw these items on the puja tray.

Talk to a partner.

Can you describe how some of the items are used?

Why is making offerings an important part of puja?

Kum Kum powder

Fresh fruit

Fresh flowers

Bell

Incense holder

Draw each of these items on the puja tray and then explain what each of the items is for and how Hindus use them for worship.

Bell

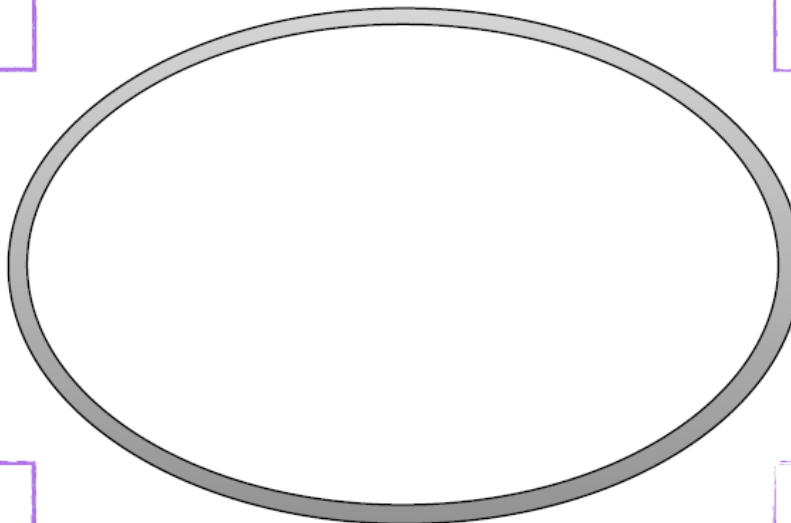

Diva lamp

Fresh fruit and flowers

Incense holder

Kum Kum powder

Water container and spoon

Writing Frame 2

With a partner, write notes about each of these slides to help you give a short presentation.

Hindu Worship in the Mandir

1)

3)

4)

5)

2)

9)

6)

7)

8)

How is worship in the mandir like worshipping
at home?

10)

11)