Learning Knows No Bounds

2. How do we at Broadfield Primary School, including the Early Years setting, identify pupils with SEND?

At Broadfield Primary School we aim to identify special educational needs at an early stage to enable appropriate provision and support to be implemented.

A special educational need may be highlighted as a result of :

- ⇒ A parent or carer's views or concerns,
- ⇒ Home visits prior to a child attending the early years setting,
- ⇒ Information from a previous educational setting or other professionals – transition process,
 - ⇒ Visits to preschool setting,
 - ⇒ Regular tracking of Teacher Assessments,
 - ⇒ Pupil progress meetings,
 - ⇒ Measuring the impact of interventions,
 - ⇒ Pupil views,
 - ⇒ Feedback from specialist assessments.

What should parents do if they think their child may have a special educational need?

Parents/carers are invited to discuss their concerns with the class teacher and SENCO (Special Educational Needs Co-ordinator)

All teachers work on the advice given by professionals and follow an Assess, Plan, Do, Review process to support children's progress.

3. What is the approach to teaching pupils with SEND at Broadfield Primary School?

Quality first teaching includes differentiated learning for all children including those with additional needs. Regular assessments in all areas of learning inform teachers' planning which is adapted to match individual needs.

Adaptations might include:

- ⇒ Variation in groupings
- ⇒ Adaptations to resources and/or the learning environment e.g. specialist computer programmes such as Clicker
- ⇒ Personalised learning programmes
- ⇒ Needs driven interventions
 - 1:1 tuition
 - PECS (Picture Exchange Communication System)
 - Lego therapy
 - Inference training to help with reading, language and communication
 - Language interventions—WellComm, ELKLAN and NELI (Nuffield Early Language Intervention)

Age appropriate interventions support children with learning in English, including oracy and mathematics as well as in social and emotional development. This may range from 1:1 to small group support.

How do we involve the children in their own learning?

Children are closely involved in their own learning through:

- 1. Ongoing dialogue with adults and peers;
- 2. Regular opportunities for self and peer assessment within lessons;
- 3. The opportunity to respond to written and oral feedback;
- 4. Contributing towards the target setting process for reading, writing and mathematics.

How is the effectiveness of provision for pupils with SEND evaluated?

The effectiveness of any intervention is closely monitored. Progress for all children is assessed termly. For children with special educational needs, or who have fallen behind National expectations, PIVATS 5 is used to assess progress than in smaller steps than the National Curriculum. Appropriate interventions, support and next steps are established through consultation with the child, parents, class teacher, SENDCO and Headteacher.

How is the decision made about the type and amount of additional support provided for a child with SEND?

Broadfield School will follow guidelines outlines in EHC (Education and Health Care Plan) given by the Local Authority as to how allocated funding should be used.

4. How will Broadfield Primary School and parents know how their child is doing?

Parents can discuss any aspect of their child's education with the class teacher first then the SENDCO at the end of the school day or by appointment.

Parents opinions and knowledge of their child is taken into account and a close working partnership ensures the best outcomes for each child.

Termly 'child centred reviews' will be held. They may be in the form of:

- ⇒ Parent/child review meetings in line with the assertive mentoring process
- ⇒ Meetings attended by parents, child, Teacher, SENDCO and other professionals.
- ⇒ Annual review of EHC plan

At these reviews the child's strengths, progress and targets will be discussed. An action plan for on-going provision will be drawn up and areas of responsibility identified.

Regular assessment of progress will include personal, social and emotional development as appropriate.

Formal written 'Reports' are provided twice a year.

Homework is used to reinforce and consolidate learning. A homework club is provided from years 2 to 6 so that Teacher support is available and parents are welcome to attend to support their child.

However if any parent wishes to make a formal complaint they should:
