

Well done

As usual, it has been a very busy half term. A huge thank you to all the staff for their amazing flexibility and creativity in their delivery of the remote learning. Pupil engagement has been excellent and attendance overall has been very good.

Well done to the parents and children, your continued support especially during this period has been fantastic. We understand it is a really difficult job home schooling but we really do appreciate all you have done so far. I look forward to meeting up with you all after the half term break.

Life for all of us, has been very challenging. I would like to express my sincere condolences to those of you who have lost loved ones. Let's hope things will improve soon.

Today, we close for half-term and we will reopen on Monday 22nd February, all online lessons will resume on that day.

I hope that you have a well-deserved rest with your family.

Well done to Faizan and his mum who have been really busy at home.

We love writing

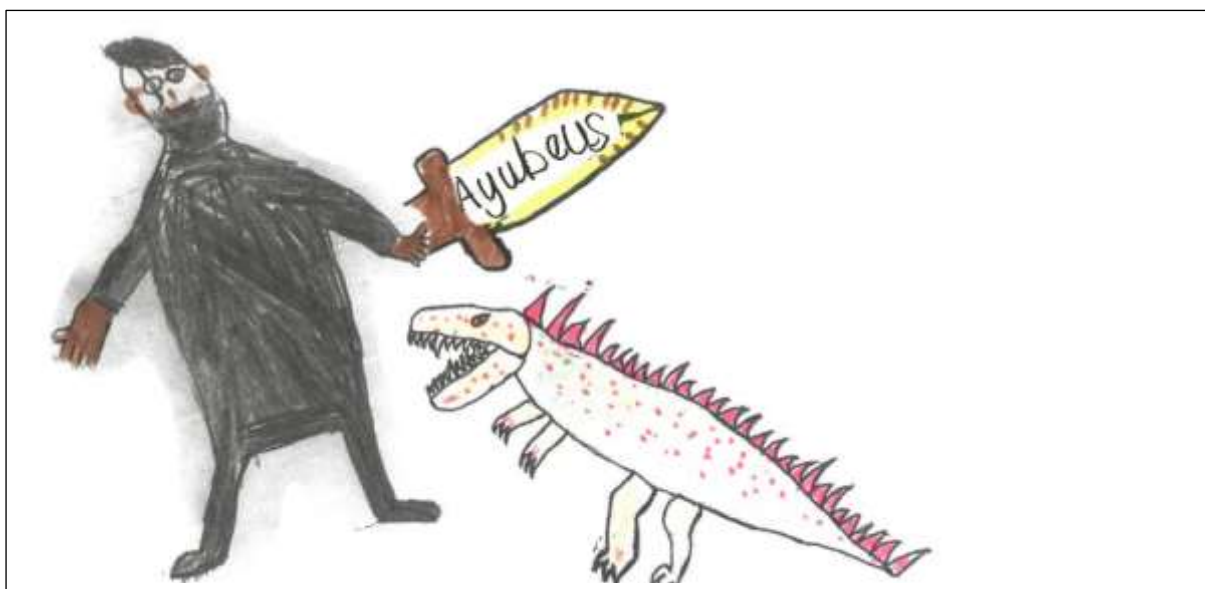

THE LEGEND OF AYUBEUS

In a small peaceful village lived a man who was kind and trustworthy. Ayubeus, who was an excellent fighter, tackled crime to save people's lives. In the past, his family tried to kill the beast but failed. Ayubeus spent many years trying to find a way to defeat this elusive monster.

Full of anger, brave Ayubeus hunted for the beast who lived at the bottomless lake. The icy lake, which was full of bodies, appeared bloody. He was irritated, he wanted to kill the beast before it killed him. Furiously, he swam and dove deep into the abyss. The lake was extremely dark and cold. Without any fear, Ayubeus continued searching for the monster.

Scattered across the lake were bodies of poor victims. This made him incredibly furious. He wanted to find the beast before more victims' lives were lost. As he got deeper, he got closer. Suddenly, he heard a roar as loud as a vicious lion which caused a tsunami.

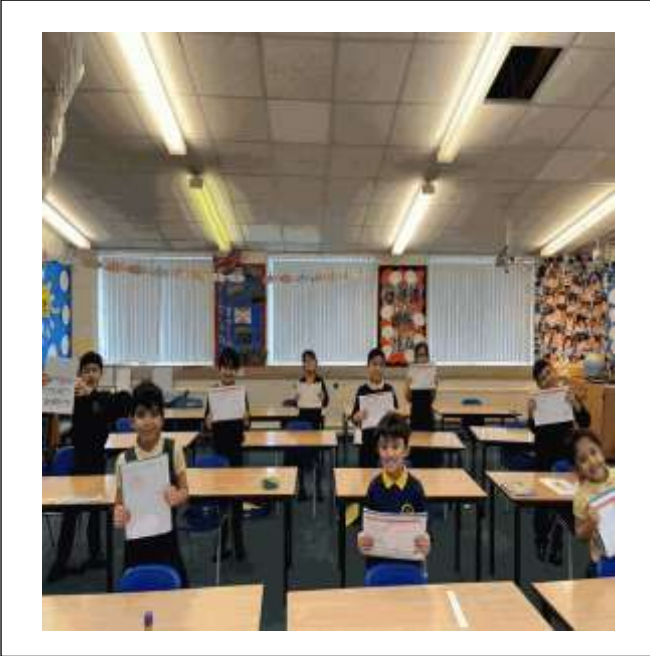

The giant waves forced Ayubeus backward and into some underwater rocks. BANG! He was injured. He now was fighting for his life but he knew the beast was near. With the last bit of energy, he slashed the beast across its scaly head. The beast, bled and fell deeper into the abyss. Unfortunately, Ayubeus died.

By Ayub – Oak class

Learning

I have been really impressed with the attitude of all the children that have attended school this term. The standard of their work has been good. Below are examples of work from pupils in Beech class.

Broadfield Primary School

Awards

'Together We Can Achieve'

Pupil of the Week

Headteacher	Razia
Headteacher	Rehan
Deputy Headteacher	Subhan
Deputy Headteacher	Sehar
Reception 1	Harris
Reception 2	Inshirah
Year 1 Larch	Musa
Year 1 Larch	Iqra
Y1/2 Beech	Ruqayyah
Y2 Willow	Willow class
Y3 Maple	Ruhama
Y3/4 Woodlands	Awais
Y3/4 Chestnut	Faizan
Y3/4 Chestnut	Unays
Y5 Ash	Sana
Y5 Sycamore	Tanjida
Y6 Elm	Holly
Y6 Oak	Ayub

Shout Outs

Madiha	Hibba
Ibrahim	Fatima
Zariyan	Maisey-Rae
Zayaan	Eshal
Hashim	Hadid
Genevieve	Amelia
Talia	Eesa
Ismaeel	Safha
Meerab	Jonathan

WOW Learning from home

